Deepak & Krupa's wedding

Day 2 - 19th January 2024 (Sunday)

Kaasi Yatra - 8:00 AM

Here the groom leaves to Kashi for higher learning, but the bride's father requests him not to leave, and offers to give his daughter in marriage.

Anthar Patah, Maalai Maatral, Oonjal- 9:00 AM

Anthar Patah : The curtain placed between the bride and groom symbolizing the sacred transition from individuality to togetherness

Maalai Maatral : Playful exchange of garlands between the bride & groom

Pongal : The couple is seated on a decorated swing and is protected from kan drishti (evil eye) as a handful of rice is taken and circled around them

Kanya Daanam - 10:30 AM

Kanya Daanam is a sacred ritual in Indian weddings where the bride's parents formally give her hand in marriage to the groom, entrusting him with her well-being and happiness.

Mangalya Dhaaranam - 11:00 AM

The bride draped in traditional 9 yard saree is seated on her father's lap as the groom ties the Maangalyam around the bride's neck.

This will be followed by Saptapadi where the newly wed couple walk around the fire.

Wedding menu

Hello everyone! 🌿 In our effort to keep things eco-friendly, we've planned a low-plastic wedding—avoiding single-use plastic bottles, cups, and cutlery wherever possible.

We also kindly request your support in minimizing food waste, as we believe food is one of life's greatest blessings.
